

Biography for Chi T Mathias Reed

Chi T Mathias Reed is an inspired and creative, Visionary, PurposePrenuer, Holistic Health Practitioner, and Philanthropist. Chi has over two decades of experience, commitment, and dedication to building community initiatives that improve the quality of life, increase awareness, and transform lives. Chi also serves as an international inspirational speaker, workshop facilitator, author, strategist, and breakthrough coach.

Chi is a wife, biological mother of two, bonus mother to three, and a grandmother of three. Her mission is to use her voice and influence to transform lives, while leaving a legacy for her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. She is a published author of two self published books, in which she shares the wisdom she has gained through her pursuit of purpose and her personal transformation journey.

Chi handles the multiple hats that she wears on a daily basis with grace and effortlessly manages them all well. Chi received her certification as a Holistic Health Practitioner in 2017 from Pure Vitality University. As a Breakthrough and Endurance Coach, she passionately walks with individuals who are ready to transform their lives and achieve their lifestyle and wellness goals. As a Pastor and PurposePrenuer, she supports entrepreneurs spiritually and practically. While assisting them with taking their visions to the next level, by developing business strategy and implementing brand launches.

Currently she serves as Marketplace Pastor at Agape Paradigm Ministries, Inc. that serves the Southeast Region of the United States and the continent of Africa. She also leads as Founder of the For Our Daughters Foundation, Inc. and oversees three businesses (Mathias & Associates, LLC, Inside Out Health & Beauty and POSSH314 Catering and Events) with her husband Maurice.